This document is furnished to you as a matter of information only. The issuance of this document does not make the person or organisation to whom it is issued an additional Insured, nor does it modify in any manner the contract of insurance between the Insured and the Underwriters. Any amendment, change or extension of such contract can only be effected by specific endorsement attached thereto.

Should the above mentioned contract of insurance be cancelled, assigned or changed in such manner as to affect this document, no obligation to inform the holder of this document is accepted by the undersigned or by the Underwriters.

If further details are required, then this can be provided with the permission of our client.

Yours faithfully

Chris King

It is a legal requirement world-wide that anyone seeking a new policy of insurance/reinsurance or cover for additional risks or renewal under an existing policy, must disclose any information that might influence the insurers/reinsurers in fixing the premium or determining whether to accept the risk. Under English law, failure to do so may entitle insurers/reinsurers to avoid cover from inception and to seek repayment of paid claims. If you are in any doubt as to whether information is material you should disclose it.
